LA GALAXY OC ANNOUNCES RETURN TO UWS

Irvine, CA – LA Galaxy Orange County is pleased to announce after a successful inaugural campaign with a 7-2-1 record, that the OC Women's Team is returning to compete in the UWS Western Conference for the 2019 season.

With returning UCI Head Coach Scott Juniper at the helm, home games will be played in the heart of Orange County at the OC Great Park Stadium.

Coach Juniper is excited to welcome back returning players:

Connie Caliz – Cal State Fullerton
Hillary Beall – University of Michigan, U19 USWNT
Jordan Marada – USC, FC Slovácko
Nicole Molen – USC, MTK Hungaria FC
Natalie Jacobs – USC, U1720/23 USWNT, 2019 UWS Defensive Player of the Year
Chelsey Patterson – Cal State Fullerton
Natalie Ward – Notre Dame

Director of Operations, Tim Woodcock, shared: "We are proud to be returning to the UWS. We had a strong team and a very successful inaugural season, with 8 players signing pro-contracts in Europe, Sabrina Flores getting drafted to Sky Blue FC and Megan Crosson signed with Washington Spirit. With Coach Juniper leading this team, we look forward to providing an opportunity for top female players to play beyond college soccer and for our local community to experience top level play in their backyard."
